

The New York City Association for the Education of Young Children
Presents:

A Three-Borough
NAEYC Accreditation Information Event

The Accreditation Committee invites you to join a panel discussion on the NAEYC Accreditation Process. Panel members include early childhood professionals — seasoned directors, teachers and accreditation facilitators. Topics will include:

- An Introduction to NAEYC Accreditation & Resources for Support: A number of resources, some free or available with scholarships are available to early childhood programs settings to assist in securing a successful experience and pathway to NAEYC Accreditation including NAEYC's Accreditation Support Department, NAEYC Accreditation Scholarships, TORCH, and Quality New York.
- The NAEYC Standards for Accreditation: An examination of the standards and criteria and strategies that move your program along the pathway towards NAEYC accreditation.
- Developing NAEYC Accreditation Portfolios: Useful tips for success. Explore important concepts in framing the sources of evidence, recognizing that the portfolios often complement direct observation, and help programs identify how to demonstrate their performance of the standards in the past, present and future.
- How to Plan and What to Expect from the NAEYC Site Visit: You've done all the work and sent everything in. You're now ready and waiting for your visit from NAEYC. The panel will present real life scenarios on what they did to prepare their Center and staff and what they learned from their experience.
- What Happens After the NAEYC Site Visit?: The NAEYC site visit is only one part of the cycle of quality assurance for both NAEYC and you. Learn how the panelists prepared their staff and families for the accreditation decision and used their Accreditation Decision Reports (ADR) for the next steps in a continuous process of quality improvement.
